Fed. R. Civ. P. 50 Local Rule 2100-8 Jury Trial

Hostmann v. Marine Consultants, Inc., et al., Adv. No. 95-3601, Civ No. 97-1020-FR
In re W.S., Inc., 394-36434-dds7

10/15/98 FRYE Unpublished

The bankruptcy court determined that a right to jury trial existed in this adversary proceeding, that a timely demand for a jury trial was made, and the parties did not consent to the bankruptcy court presiding at the jury trial. The bankruptcy court conducted pretrial proceedings through the pretrial order (including summary judgment on issues as to which no right to jury trial existed - see P96-22(7)) and transmitted the adversary proceeding to the district court for jury trial pursuant to Local Rule 2100-8.

The matter was set for a four day jury trial before Judge Frye. At the conclusion of plaintiff/trustee's case, Judge Frye granted defendants' Fed. R. Civ. P. 50 motion for judgment as a matter of law and dismissed the case on the merits without opinion.
